

I urge the FCC intends to levy fines against CBS for the half time show. Regardless of who planned the "exposure" it is ultimately CBS's responsibility. Network TV has gotten way out of hand by allowing profanity and now this. I'm embarrassed that my 9 year old had to see what he did during the Superbowl. I'll be sure to turn off my TV next year during half time.